

Agreement to conduct business electronically

If you decide to apply to establish a trading account with Exto Capital SA (Exto Capital), you agree to receive electronically the risk disclosures and all other account opening documentation such as the terms and conditions.

Risk Disclosure, General Conditions, and any notices, instructions, agreements, or any other communications regarding transactions and your Account may be presented, delivered, stored, retrieved, and transmitted electronically. The documentation, agreements and transactions will be executed using electronic records and electronic signatures.

The decision whether to do business electronically is yours, and you should consider whether you have the necessary hardware and software capabilities. Your consent to do business electronically, and our agreement to do so, only applies to the establishment and maintenance of your Account and the execution of Transactions in connection with your Account. You have the right to withdraw your consent to doing business electronically at any time. However, if you withdraw such consent, any Electronic Communications or Transactions between us during the period after your consent to doing business electronically, and before your withdrawal of such consent, will be valid and binding on all parties.

When you select "I agree" button below, you a) confirm that you have the capability to access the Electronic Communications, b) consent to having all Electronic Communications provided or made available to you in electronic form, and c) consent to executing the Agreement and Transactions by electronic record and/or electronic signature.

You should keep us informed of any change in your electronic or mailing address or other contact information.
